

Orientation Meeting One

Online Learning

The Basics

People to People travel programs include two types of online pre-travel educational components.

1. Student Ambassador Certification
2. Explore Before You Go (destination specific learning)

Student Ambassador Certification

This is an interactive, online presentation designed to prepare you for travel. This presentation is available in Flash format or text version. Completing and passing three quizzes for the module is all that it takes to be certified as “travel-ready.” Your leader will assign you chapters to complete that coincide with topics for discussion and activities for each of the orientation meetings you will attend.

Explore Before You Go

This is destination specific learning that teaches about the geography, history, government and culture of your destination country(s). These presentations are available in Flash format or text version. Completing and passing five quizzes is what it takes to meet the academic requirements of the Washington School of World Studies.
